[SHRI V. MURALEEDHARAN]

(a) & (b) India and the UK have been strategic partners since 2004. In the context of the UK leaving the EU, both countries recognize the immense opportunities for enhanced cooperation in key areas, including trade & prosperity, defence & security, climate change and clean energy, mobility and migration and health sectors. India and the UK are working on a comprehensive 10 year 360 degree Roadmap to elevate the strategic partnership to the next level.
